Cat in the Hat

New Mexico's U.S. Rep. Heather Wilson joined children at the Maxwell Child Development Center March 3 to read Dr. Seuss' book, "The Cat in the Hat." Celebrity guest readers and other community members joined TEAM KIRTLANDers participating in the National Education Association's Read Across America, a campaign to encourage children to read. The annual literacy promotion is celebrated on or near Seuss' birthday. Seuss, dubbed the "Modern Mother Goose," died at age 87 in 1991. Similar reading events were also held at the Gibson CDC, Sandia Base Elementary School and the Kirtland Boys and Girls Club.
